Objective of the Activity Done: To collect about women education

Detailed Report: In this fourth week my question is benefits of girls education

Person answer

Investing in girls education has innumerable benefits for a country. Educating women has a positive impact on economic, social and health issues. Higher female literacy rates reduce child mortality. Education lowers the child rate. Girls education reduces inequality in society. Educated girls are less likely to marry young, more likely to raise healthier children.

Women who complete higher education and acquire skills increase their lifetime. Women are less likely to be stunted or stunted.
